

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

TDC INTERNATIONAL CORP.,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 08-CV-14792

JAE L. BURNHAM,

Defendant.

E - FILED
DATE _____

ORDER ACKNOWLEDGING RECEIPT OF DEFENDANT'S SUBMISSION TO THE COURT AND ALLOWING PLAINTIFF TO FILE A RESPONSE

The court previously ordered Defendant to "remove and delete all of his internet postings, advertisements, websites, email addresses, online business listings, YouTube accounts, Twitter accounts, Craigslist postings, and any other online material associated with him." (5/3/10 Injunction at 3.) The court then directed Defendant to file with the court "proof sufficient for the court to determine that Defendant has removed his entire presence from the internet." (Id.) Defendant has submitted his proof to the court. The court acknowledges receipt of these materials and has attached them to this order.

It has been brought to the court's attention that Plaintiff's counsel has sent emails to the court's case manager regarding what Plaintiff perceives as Defendant's violations of the Injunction. The court has not, and will not, review these emails. The court directs Plaintiff's counsel to cease what could be perceived as ex parte communications with the court. If Plaintiff desires to respond regarding the sufficiency of Defendant's proof, it may file a response, no sooner than May 28, 2010, but no later than June 11, 2010. The court believes having a brief recess to allow the "dust to settle" is the proper course under the circumstances of this case.

Accordingly, the court ACKNOWLEDGES receipt of Defendant's proof and ATTACHES it to this order. Plaintiff may file a response no sooner than May 28, 2010, but no later than June 11, 2010. The court will then issue an order regarding the sufficiency of Defendant's proof.

S/Robert H. Cleland
ROBERT H. CLELAND

Case #: 08-CV-14792

To whom it may concern:

As ordered by the court I have erased those sites that I have control over from all presence and started anew.

I have included copies of pictures I took of my efforts. You will see photos of a cleaned out Craigslist accounts (2). You will see that I have deleted my YouTube account and started a new one. You will also see that I had shut down my website. Lastly, a copy of the check that I sent to weintraub.

Also included is a DVD/CD that also has these pictures. — (retained in chambers) SW

Please let the court inform me if these are sufficient or if any further actions are needed.

Thank you.
